TALK

about how the Bible reading might relate to your highs and lows

Choose from the options below to enrich your Talk Time. Invite group members to take turns leading one or more of the following:

IMAGES

1. Choose either the cover photo, cartoon, ink art or painting by Dr. He Qi (back page).
2. Where are you in this work of art?
3. How might the art and the theme verse relate to each other?
4. How might the art relate to your highs and lows?

ROLE PLAY

Assign roles and take turns acting out the following:

1. A classmate says, "I can't believe in a God who would allow wars, starvation and all this evil in the world. Either God isn't all powerful, or God isn't all loving." How do you respond?
2. There are people alive today who sincerely believe it is the will of God to strap explosives on their bodies and blow themselves up in order to kill enemy soldiers, civilians, and children. How do you respond?

QUESTIONS TO PONDER

1. Why do we need to pray for God's will to be done? If God is God, can't God do it without us?
2. List five things happening in the world today that are definitely not the will of God.
3. List one thing you could do to bring God's will to one of the situations above. Will you do it?

QUOTATIONS

Choose a quotation (right column) and share your thoughts and questions about it.

If you want to make God laugh, tell him about your plans.

Woody Allen

If the will of God is our will, and if God always has God's way, then we always have our way also.

Hannah Whitall Smith

PRAY
for one another's
highs and lows

Gather in a circle. Praise and thank God for your highs. Ask the Holy Spirit to be with you in your lows. Pray for your friend's highs and lows and for your world. Close in Jesus' name.

Prayers for Highs

Prayers for Lows

BLESS
one another

Trace the sign of the cross on one another's foreheads or palms.

REMEMBER
1 THING

Jesus taught his disciples to pray to God saying, "Your will be done." When you pray this, you invite God's good and gracious will into your life and ask to be a part of ushering it into the world.
